DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group IV (claims 1-14) in the reply filed on 11/15/2004 is acknowledged.

Claims 1-10, 15 and 16 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 11/15/2004.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: '805' and '809'. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it exceeds 150 words.

Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

4. Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities: "an data access" in line 3 of claim 1 should be corrected [Emphasis added]. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Art Unit: 2133

5. Claims 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. MPEP § 2164.08(a) recites, "A single means claim, i.e., where a means recitation does not appear in combination with another recited element of means, is subject to an undue breadth rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. In re Hyatt, 708 F.2d 712, 714-715, 218 USPQ 195, 197 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (A single means claim which covered every conceivable means for achieving the stated purpose was held nonenabling for the scope of the claim because the specification disclosed at most only those means known to the inventor.). Claim 1 is a single means claim.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 11-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. Claim 11 recites "a plurality of memory-cell arrays for storing an array content therein provided for an data-access to an array". The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: the relationship between "memory-cell arrays" and an "array". Is the array recited in line 3 one of the "memory cell arrays" or is it a different one?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 11- are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chang; Chih-Wei D. et al. (US 5455834 A, hereafter referred to as Chang).

35 U.S.C. 102(b) rejection of claim 11.

Chang teaches an error-check logic circuit for checking errors of said data access to each of said memory-cell arrays (Figure 3 in Chang teaches a CAM device 24 comprising various arrays for addresses 80, Data 94, error detection and correction parity bits 96 & 98 and validation bits 100; Error processors 48A & 48B are error-check logic circuits for checking errors of said data access to each of said memory-cell arrays by verifying both data and address content).

35 U.S.C. 102(b) rejection of claims 12-14.

Chang teaches parity bit arrays 96 & 98 in Figure 3 of Chang for storing an error-code check (ECC) parity for each of said memory-cell array used by said error-check logic circuit for checking errors of said data access to each of said memory-cell arrays. Note:

Figure 4 is a circuit for generating an EDC check bit for storage in a memory cell of bit arrays 96 & 98 in Figure 3 of Chang. Note also SRAM is RAM.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Barnaby; Catherine L. et al. (US 5491703 A) teaches an error-check system for checking errors for data access to memory-cell arrays.
